Housing Measure Signed

Truman Blasts Republican Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman signed a Republican-modified housing bill today but said the 80th Congress "failed miserably" to meet long-range housing needs.

The President told a news conference the legislation is "practically nothing" at all as a housing bill.

He called it a "batch of political patchwork."

"It was passed by the Congress in the final hours of the session, after the Republican leadership refused to permit the House of Representatives to vote upon the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill," Mr. Truman said in a formal statement.

Public housing provisions of the T-E-W bill, calling for slum clearance, construction of low-cost homes and other features, were ripped out by the Republican majority.

Under the bill signed by Mr. Truman, the Reconstruction Finance corporation is given authority to buy GI home loan mortgages of up to $10,000 each.

It permits banks and other lending institutions to sell the RFC's Federal National Mortgage association as much as 25 per cent of the GI mortgages they hold.

TONGUE SHARP

Mr. Truman used sharp language in criticizing the housing bill. Reviewing what he considers its shortcomings, the President said.

"It fails to provide for farm housing or for slum clearance.

"It fails to provide for housing research, for financial assistance to large-scale home construction, or for encouraging large-scale production of prefabricated housing.

"It fails completely in meeting our greatest housing need—low-cost rental housing. It makes no provision for publicly-assisted low-rent housing—or, in fact, for any rental housing.

"Contrasted with the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill, this measure was properly labeled in the Congress as the 'teeny-weeny' housing bill."

He said he signed the bill because:

It increases funds available for government purchase of home mortgages insured by the Federal Housing administration; restores authority to purchase mortgages guaranteed under the GI act and purports to liberalize the government's authority to insure mortgages for veterans' housing cooperatives.

"But even in these respects," Mr. Truman said, "the bill is seriously defective."

Takes Post At Hospital

Wayne A. Copeland of Warsaw, N. Y., today took over his post as superintendent of Mansfield General hospital.

Copeland yesterday made a cursory tour of the hospital and its departments.

"Although I've had no time as yet to do much detailed investigating, I find it a very nice hospital and apparently operating very well," Copeland said. "It's certainly a busy place."

Copeland, 45, was administrative head of the Wyoming County Community hospital at Warsaw when he accepted the Mansfield post. He is a Kiwanian and Mason and a member of the American Hospital association and the American College of Hospital Administrators.

Mercury Down to 50

The perspiring Mansfielders of two days ago were the shivering Mansfielders today.

As the mercury skidded to 50 degrees at 5 a. m. today many a blanket was pulled from storage as protection against the cool breezes whipping through open windows. At noon the temperature had risen only 12 degrees.

Weathermen said the "typical fall weather," however, won't last long. Friday's forecast is for fair skies and warmer temperatures with a high range of between 75 and 85 degrees over the state.

The mercury dropped to 53 at Toledo, Cincinnati and Findlay this morning while northern Michigan reported chilly readings of in the 40's and Wisconsin had temperatures close to freezing.

Workers To Get Holiday

Thousands of workers in Mansfield industrial plants will have a three-day holiday week end as factories mark the Fourth of July next Monday.

A few plants and a number of business places will close all next week to give workers a vacation.

Scheduled to close over Monday are the Ohio Brass, Westinghouse, Mansfield Tire, Ideal Electric, and Humphryes Manufacturing company plants.

The Tappan Stove company and the Mansfield Brass and Aluminum corporation will be closed the entire week.

A. L. Allen, personnel manager of the Empire Steel corporation, said that the company has not decided whether it will shut down Monday. He said that probably 300 or 400 of the 1,400 employes would be on the job Monday to keep the open hearth fires going.

Westinghouse and Mansfield Tire will close to give workers a two-week vacation from July 17 to Aug. 2. Other plants will stagger employes' vacations throughout the summer.

Canton Man Will Serve FCC Probers

Ohioan Named Aid For Inquiry Board

Atty. Frank T. Bow, of Canton, O., today was named as special counsel for the select committee of the House of Representatives in Washington which is to investigate the Federal Communications commission.

Announcement of the selection of Atty. Bow came today from Washington in an announcement by Rep. Forest A. Harness of Indiana, chairman of the select committee.

Harness added, according to Associated Press, that the inquiry into the operations of the FCC will start immediately, with particular stress on probing into granting of radio broadcasting licenses to station owners who are alleged to be communists or have communistic leanings and associations.

ALREADY ON PROBE

Bow is a widely-known attorney in Canton and has been working on another investigation in Washington with Rep. Harness, it was reported today from Canton.

The inquiry into FCC activities is expected to reach into Mansfield and other Ohio cities as a result of the storm of protest aroused by granting of five broadcasting licenses in two weeks last March to Toledo Lawyer Edward Lamb, whose grants included one in Mansfield.

Lamb, however, now has withdrawn from the Mansfield area and from Springfield, O., as well.

It is expected that preliminary investigation by the House committee will consume approximately six weeks, after which the board will begin holding public hearings in Washington.

Finns Open 2-Day Voting

HELSINKI — (U.P.) — Finland's two-day general election of a new parliament, expected to reflect any change in communist strength, began today with fine weather and queues waiting when the polls opened.

The votes for 200 members of the one-chamber parliament will be cast today and tomorrow. About 1,000 candidates were running in the 15 electoral districts.

The count will begin Friday night. But even the first scattered decisions were not expected before Sunday and the final results may not be known for a week. The counting under a complicated proportional representative system was certain to be slow.

The new diet will meet July 20. After that the cabinet, now headed by Premier Mauno Pekkala, will be reorganized if the election results require it.

Ashland Sets Pace for Nation With Business Housecleaning

By VIRGINIA LEED

ASHLAND — Ashland's Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Downtown Housecleaning Day Wednesday was so complete a success that it may spark similar events in other cities of the nation, sanitation experts declared today.

From early morning until evening store owners and employes dug out junk, lugged it to the doors and pitched it into the roped-off streets as five city trucks labored continuously to haul away the accumulation of trash to the city dump.

Traffic was diverted from Main street and adjoining streets throughout the day to allow the trucks to gather up trash as it poured out store doors. Overalled employes were joined by Joe McClure, C. of C. secretary; Mayor Louis Mansfield, Dr. C. B. Meuser, city health commissioner, and others in the big cleaning-up day.

FIRST IN U. S.

Jess Straitliff, Akron, technical adviser for the U. S. department of the interior, declared it was the first such organized effort in any city as far as he knew. He expressed hope other cities will conduct similar clean-ups and predicted the clean-up would go far in eliminating the rat problem in the downtown section.

Thirty-five truck-loads of trash were hauled to the city dump during the day in the five trucks manned by 12 city street department workers. Waldo Kauffman, city street superintendent, who supervised the hauling, described it as "sure a busy day" for his workers.

Nearly every store in the downtown area cooperated. Business was at a near stand-still because of the trash-hauling endeavors. All Ashland stores and offices close regularly Wednesday afternoons so only the morning business hours were lost by the effort.

LITTLE SHOPPING

Would-be customers found shopping attempts discouraging. With streets roped off, parking was impossible except at some distance from the stores. Pedestrians picked their way among masses of junk being hurled out of store doors.

Police Chief Harry Smith "covered" the clean-up with his camera. McClure, who organized the event, seemed to be everywhere at once, attired in overalls and ready to lend a hand wherever needed.

Dr. Meuser expressed his delight at the success of the affair which carries out his program to make Ashland the cleanest city anywhere.

Among items discarded were old coal oil stoves, useless for many years, patent medicines which have been off the market for decades, a decripit "one-holer," queer old jugs. One store alone contributed five of the 35 truck-loads of junk.

The effort was planned to meet the new city health code regulations which go into effect today and which require regular inspections of stores and business places by the city's newly-employed full-time sanitarian.

CLEANER-UPPERS—Big piles of rubbish like this were hauled away in Ashland yesterday as that city's Chamber of Commerce held a "housecleaning." Joe McClure, Chamber of Commerce secretary, mans the truck as Jess Straitiff, of Akron, U. S. department of interior technical adviser; Mayor Louis E. Mansfield and Dr. C. B. Meuser, Ashland city health commissioner, lend a hand in cleanup.

New German Unity Begins

Three Western Zones Linked

FRANKFURT—(U.P.)—The western powers today formally authorized formation of a separate German government for three western zones, but kept most of the governing powers for themselves.

The United States, Britain and France, giving a mandate to 11 statesmen to proceed with plans for the new unified western German nation, made plain that they will continue to control foreign relations, foreign trades, allied funds, and to take any measures which may affect the security of the occupying powers.

Gen. Pierre Koenig of France laid it on the line for the German minister-presidents of the 11 German states in the three western zones in a meeting held in what was once the war room of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's supreme headquarters. The big operations maps on the walls were screened.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor for Germany, told the German leaders that drawing of a new constitution for Western Germany must begin by Sept. 1. And it must protect the rights both of the states and of individuals, he emphasized. Koenig also said a bill of rights for Germans in the new state would be approved by the occupying powers.

Deadheads Halt Bus Operation

TSINGTAO, China — (AP) — This city of 800,000 was without public transportation today — the bus company went broke.

The reason: Seventy per cent of the passengers were in uniform and refused to pay fares.

Bidding on Properties Spirited

200 Jam Courthouse For Tax Sale of Lots

Approximately 200 persons jammed the first-floor corridor of the courthouse this morning as 254 delinquent properties went on sale in the largest auction of its kind since January 1946. Bidding in the early hours was at a pace and price level that indicated most owners would realize a small amount in addition to the delinquent taxes. Few lots went without an offer to buy.

The properties were first offered for sale as allotments and then, if no bids were received, as individual lots. Bidding was good on most properties offered during the morning, with three or four persons firing offers at Auctioneer C. O. Robinson for each piece offered.

Robinson was assisted in the sale by a clerk and deputy sheriff P. S. Carroll. The sale was ordered by common pleas court.

Although none of the properties offered contains dwellings, many of the lots were regarded as very desirable. The properties cannot be sold for less than the taxes due, penalties and interest, plus the court costs required in the foreclosure action and sale.

In general, individual lots were bringing from $5 to $15 above the delinquent tax figure. The Collingswood five-lot allotment, with $385 in delinquent taxes, sold for $410.

The Crystal Springs allotment, consisting of 13 lots, was offered on the block for $776.75 but no bids were received. The first four lots, selling separately brought $80, $72, $75 and $125, respectively.

Taxes due on the various pieces range from 93 cents to $954. Taxes on the properties have been delinquent from 10 to 25 years.

PLANS TO RESIGN

OTTAWA —(AP)— Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King told parliament last night he will resign this fall.

Steel Weighs Coal Action

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — Industry and union spokesmen said today they expect a decision by nightfall on whether U. S. Steel corporation and nine big competitors will sign the 1948 coal wage contract with John L. Lewis.

Informed sources predicted the industry would agree to terms with Lewis' United Mine Workers and thus avert a strike next Tuesday when the miners' 10-day vacation ends. The steel companies operate the so-called "captive" coal mines.

More than 65 per cent of the soft coal industry signed the new contract last Friday. It provides for $1-a-day pay raises, an increase from 10 to 20 cents a ton in operator contributions to the union welfare fund and continuation of the union shop.

But Harry M. Moses, chief negotiator for the steel industry, refused to go along with the union shop provision, although he agreed "reluctantly" to the wage increases.

PETAIN'S BROTHER DIES

BETHUNE, France —(AP)— Antoine Petain, 87, younger brother of ex-Marshal Philippe Petain, died today at the Cauchy-la-tour farm where he and his brother were born.

Water Bills Up Sharply

Statements Reflect Increased Rates

A partial indication of the added income being realized by the water department as a result of the recent rate boost was revealed today as the department mailed out statements of six-month residential and one-month commercial water charges.

The total of the June commercial water bills was $12,400, as compared with $8,001 in June a year ago.

The six-month domestic water billings for east side domestic users total $80,130 this year as compared with $26,794 for the first six months last year. These billings were only partially at the increased rate which became effective in April.

Money to be collected from east side residential customers for sewer service totaled $9,311, as compared with $8,734 last year.

The six-month commercial sewer bills, which were also in the mail today, showed a slight increase of $545 over last year's $4,645.

Fred E. Lingafelter, secretary of the water and sewer departments, reminded householders that their bills must be paid before July 10 to avoid the payment of a 10 per cent penalty. He requested that persons paying bills bring the stubs with them.

Letter Threatens U. S. Ambassador

NANKING — (AP) — U. S. Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart received an anonymous letter threatening him on his recent visit to Peiping.

The letter, an embassy spokesman said today, did not threaten the 72-year-old envoy's life, but did threaten bodily harm. Stuart has been an outspoken critic of Chinese student agitation against U. S. policy in Japan.

President Says First Ballot Will Nominate Him

'Sure, I'll Take Eleanor as Running Mate,'—Truman

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman predicted victory over the Dewey-Warren ticket in 1948 today and said Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt would be an acceptable running mate.

Mr. Truman described as foolish question number one a reporter's inquiry as to whether he would withdraw from the race.

The President then replied he would get the Democratic presidential nomination on the first ballot at the national convention meeting in Philadelphia July 12. Mr. Truman told a rapid-fire news conference that he was not worried by talk of a southern revolt against him.

A reporter observed that former Rep. Clare Boothe Luce (R-Conn.) had suggested that the Democrats' only hope was to nominate Mrs. Roosevelt as the President's running mate.

Would Mrs. Roosevelt be acceptable to the President as vice presidential candidate?

(Mr. Truman replied: of course, Tony, of course).

Then Mr. Truman asked what the reporter would expect him (the President) to say to that.

(This exchange was with Ernest B. (Tony) Vaccaro of the Associated Press).

As to whether he would welcome Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a running mate, the President suggested that the question be put to Eisenhower.

The President was asked about his comment to a trainside audience in California that he liked Gov. Earl Warren, now the Republican vice presidential candidate.

(Mr. Truman told the Californians that Warren really was a Democrat).

As a matter of fact, the chief executive said, he didn't have anything against Gov. Dewey, except that he said he is going to beat them both in the coming campaign. Thomas E. Dewey heads the Republican ticket.

"Then you definitely won't retire from the campaign?" another reporter said.

Mr. Truman said certainly not.

(At Hyde Park, Miss Malvina Thompson, secretary to Mrs. Roosevelt, said Mrs. Roosevelt was visiting with friends and was not immediately available for comment on Mr. Truman's declaration he was agreeable to having her on the ticket. Miss Thompson added she did not think Mrs. Roosevelt would have anything to say at this time).

NEWTON, Mass.—(AP)—Five-year-old Johnny Maloy's mother couldn't pull him up and she couldn't push him down—so she called the fire department.

Firemen took a look at Johnny stuck in the chimney of a backyard fireplace—and decided they would have to dismantle the flue brick by brick.

That they did to get the sooty Johnny out five hours after he became stuck to his armpits in the chimney yesterday.

Yugoslavian Communists Back Tito

Bulgaria Given 'Tough' Reply

BELGRADE — (U.P.) — Yugoslav communists who only yesterday proposed federation with Bulgaria today attacked Bulgarian communist leaders for "unprincipled lies" against Yugoslavia, and warned them that the regime of Marshal Tito is not going to change.

Borba, the official communist organ here, printed the tough reply to an official statement issued yesterday in Sofia in which the Fatherland Front National council of Bulgaria approved the cominform denunciation of Yugoslavia, thus, in effect, joining in the sweeping charges against Tito and other leaders here.

Complaining that Bulgarian communists did not even bother to check the truth of the cominform charges, the Borba article said that such tactics might damage relations between the two countries, and added:

"Such methods of procedure among communists parties are not permissible, and have nothing in common with honest and honorable comradely decisions."

Bulgarian communists, Borba said, should ask themselves how they will explain to the Bulgarian people "when the unprecedented unity of our people becomes manifest, and when it becomes clear that in Yugoslavia things will not change as they wish."

The new blast in the communist strife was fired as thousands of Yugoslavs lined up to support Tito by buying state bonds in a new $70,000,000 state loan.

From all parts of the country came manifestations of loyalty to Tito and his regime. He had solicited them in the aggressive reply by his communist central committee to charges by the cominform that he was straying from the party line.

Mississippi Grasshoppers Munch Crops

BASSFIELD, Miss. — (AP) — A mass of crunching, crawling grasshoppers—eating everything in its path but the bitterweeds — continued to inch its way through corn and cotton fields surrounding this southeastern Mississippi farm town today.

The invasion, now two days old, is being fought with a poisonous mixture of white arsenic, wheat bran and sawdust strewn in the path of the slow moving hordes.

Bill Dorris, a farmer whose fields are among those being devastated, says effectiveness of the counter-attack will be known within 36 hours.

Several new outbreaks were reported yesterday within a seven mile radius of Bassfield. The poison was applied immediately in each instance. At least 10 localities have been laid waste so far but there has been no estimate of damage.

45 Depositors Claim $58,400

Forty-five more depositors have claimed accounts totaling $58,400 at the Citizens Savings and Loan company, John A. Massa, secretary and treasurer, reported today. This leaves 255 unclaimed accounts containing $31,600.

Depositors will be given until Aug. 1 to claim their accounts. After that date the accounts will be turned over to the superintendent of building and loan associations of Ohio, in compliance with state law.

Holders of checks drawn on accounts at the loan company were urged to cash them immediately.

LAW BANS PINBALLS

NEW YORK —(AP)— Local laws banning pinball machines and doubling the city's business tax were signed yesterday by Mayor William O'Dwyer after public hearings.

10-Point Proposal Revealed

Oppose New Jewish State

CAIRO — (INS) — Trans-Jordan's premier announced today that the Arab league states have rejected proposals by United Nations Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte aimed at achieving permanent peace in Palestine.

The announcement by Premier Tawfic Pasha Abu Rhuda came shortly after the Egyptian newspaper Al Misri published what it described as Count Bernadotte's 10-point proposal.

The plan submitted to both Jews and Arabs heretofore has not been made public.

The premier said that the Arabs could not accept the plan because it provided for the existence of a Jewish state.

Commenting on a reported provision of the plan to incorporate the Arab area of Palestine into Trans-Jordan, he stated:

"Trans-Jordan has no territorial ambitions in Palestine. It will be up to the Arab population of Palestine once they are liberated to decide whether they wish union with Trans-Jordan or membership in the Arab league as an independent state."

PAPER CRITICAL

Al Misri, which criticized the plan as one of "Anglo-American inspiration," said that it proposed a reunion of Arab portions of Palestine with Trans-Jordan.

It listed the 10 points as:

1. Reunion of Trans-Jordan and Palestine in its original form under British mandate.

2. That this original mandated area be divided into independent Arab and Jewish states.

3. The Jewish state to have all lands granted under the United Nations partition plan except the Negeb desert area which would be given to the Arabs. In compensation the Jews would get the whole of Galilee from acre to the Syrian and Lebanese borders.

4. The Arab state would include Arab sections of Palestine and Trans-Jordan.

5. Haifa would be proclaimed a free port while the status of Jaffa would be discussed later.

6. Jerusalem would be given a special government under the jurisdiction of the U. N. to insure the safety of holy places.

7. The Jewish and Arab states would form a central committee to arbitrate differences.

8. This committee also would coordinate the foreign, defense and economic policies of the two states.

9. If the states are unable to settle any differences they will refer the matters to the U. N.

10. The Jewish state will have the right to independent regulation of immigration into its own territory.

Ohio Strike Threats End

(By Associated Press)

CIO unions representing workers in seven Ohio cities today had reached agreements on contracts calling for wage increases ranging from seven and one-half cents to 16 cents an hour.

The largest settlement was acceptance by the United Steelworkers of America of the Timken Roller Bearing company's offer of approximately $5,130,000 in back pay and a flat 14-cent-an-hour wage increase on top of that.

Other agreements included signing of a two-year contract by the Aluminum Company of America, providing a 10 per cent boost in the hourly wages of 3,000 employes of the Cleveland plant.

The Lunkenheimer company of Cincinnati signed a contract with the Steelworkers' union, giving 1,800 employes a five cents hourly increase starting next week and an additional 2½ cents an hour from Feb. 21 to Sept. 15, 1949.

The Timken settlement affects approximately 14,000 factory workers in Canton, Columbus, Wooster, Zanesville and Mount Vernon.

The union's reconsideration of the management offer dispelled the threat of a strike which was expected to follow expiration of a union contract last midnight.

Week's Food Prices Vary, Some Up, Others Down

(By Associated Press)

Food price changes, up or down, about cancelled each other out this week across the nation. But the government predicted even higher record meat prices this fall.

Retail volume increased this week and wholesale prices were up slightly, but production was slightly lower than the week before.

Food chains and big markets reported dollar sales 14 per cent higher than last June. Independent retailers said sales were up 8 per cent. Wholesale grocers were taking in about 10 per cent more money than last June.

Fresh fruits, melons and vegetables were tending seasonally lower. But sugar, cocoa and some meats were higher.

Supplies were plentiful in most areas. Farmers reported most early crops were in above average condition, but rain in the northeast delayed some planting, so that fair crops will depend upon good weather for the rest of the summer.

Spring pig production in many sections was reported below the 10-year average. Butter and cheese production was below last year, but meat processing figures were above last year.

The Associated Press wholesale commodity price index* food component advanced from the previous week and was the highest since Feb. 6. The livestock component declined in the week, however.

The wholesale food price index of Dun & Bradstreet eased slightly during the week to $7.14 from $7.16 the week before. The index is the total cost per pound of each of 31 foods. A year ago the index was $6.39.

Woods Eases Rent Boost Adiustments

New Ruling Aids Small Landlords

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods today made it easier for small landlords (with not more than four rental dwelling units) to obtain "hardship adjustment" of rents.

Another change in regulations provides that no landlord need operate at a loss under rent control.

Both changes become effective July 10.

"These changes will, I believe, remove many of the complaints against the adjustment provisions that some landlords have made in the past," Woods said in a statement.

Small landlords will be permitted to use a simplified form in applying for a hardship adjustment. The only records they need to show a decrease in net income are tax receipts, insurance premium notices, and fuel and utility bills. Woods eliminated a requirement that they produce records or accounts to support a claim of increased operating costs. Some small landlords did not keep sufficient records to qualify for an adjustment, Woods said.

Any landlord who believes his property is being operated at a loss may petition the area rent office for an increase. He must show total income and total operating expenses for the current year.

Woods said this adjustment will "carry out the intent and spirit of the congressional directive that this office give due consideration to landlords who own controlled accommodations that are operated at a loss."

Air Force Offers New Program

The U. S. Air Force has adopted a new program for men who desire to become Air Force pilots, Capt. Robert L. Pine, commanding officer Mansfield U. S. Army and Air Forces recruiting office, announced today.

"The new program offers men between the ages of 20 to 27½ who are high school graduates, a chance to make application at the Air Force recruiting station for aviation cadet training," Capt. Pine said.

"Applicants must have two years college credit or be able to pass a written examination at either Wright field, Dayton, or Lockbourne Air Base, Columbus," he added.

If they are physically fit and pass the examination they may enter into cadet training for one year and if they successfully complete the course they will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve.

The upper 10 per cent of the class will have the opportunity to apply for regular Air Force commissions. If the applicant should "wash out" during or at the end of cadet training he will return home as a civilian, Capt. Pine said.

30,000 Return to Farm Plant Jobs After 2-Day Strike

Firm Grants Hourly Hike Of 11 Cents

Union Claims Full Victory

CHICAGO—(U.P.)—The vanguard of more than 30,000 members of the CIO United Farm Equipment Workers returned to their jobs today with settlement of a two-day strike at nine plants of the International Harvester company.

Settlement of the walkout was announced shortly before midnight last night. The company granted an 11-cent hourly raise retroactive to June 28, the date an extension of the old contract expired.

The union previously had accepted the 11-cent offer, made before the strike began, but demanded that it be made retroactive to June 14. Nevertheless, Gerald Fielde, union president, said the settlement was a "complete victory."

Fielde said union members would vote on the agreement today, and that union officers would recommend acceptance. Company spokesmen said it was agreed that key personnel would return to their jobs today to get the struck plants in shape to resume production.

The strike closed four plants in Chicago and five others at Auburn, N. Y., Richmond, Ind., Louisville, Ky., and East Moline and Rock Island, Ill.

Fielde said it was a "satisfactory settlement." He said the union dropped demands for company payment of insurance premiums and liberalized vacation provisions, and the company in turn dropped its demands for several major contract revisions.

Among these was a no-strike pledge, reduction of grievance procedure steps from three to two, and appointment of a permanent grievance arbitrator.

At Milwaukee, an AFL federal union representing 5,000 workers at the Milwaukee Harvester plant, also announced acceptance of the 11-cent raise.

Previously, the CIO United Automobile Workers, representing workers at seven other Harvester plants, had accepted the offer.

Circus Wages Court Fight Against Buying Ohio Plates

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Whether the Mills Brothers circus will winter in Ohio when the snow flys rested today in a decision to be returned in a Columbus municipal court July 21.

(The Mills Brothers circus wintered at Bucyrus last year, and made previous winter stays at the fairground in Ashland.)

The circus was charged in a five-hour hearing concluded late yesterday with operating its circus trucks on Columbus streets while they bore Missouri license plates.

Columbus City Attorney Walter Brelly jr., charged that the Mills Brothers maintained no official residence in Missouri and therefore fell under Ohio licensing laws while wintering at Circleville.

Defense Attorney Paul M. Herbert, who also is lieutenant governor, warned the court that a ruling in favor of the state would mean an important loss of revenue to Ohio towns which play winter hosts to circuses.

"An adverse ruling," he told Judge James M. Mathias, "would result in other circus outfits leaving the state during the winter, if required to buy Ohio tags."

Herbert based his defense of the brothers on the 1944 reciprocity agreement between Ohio and Missouri, citing the section allowing vehicles of one state to operate in the other without additional tags.

But Herbert's defense ran headlong into the opinion of Edward T. Fogo, registrar of motor vehicles. All circuses wintering in Ohio should, according to Fogo, buy state license plates. He testified that such was his stand when the Mills Brothers were told to purchase extra tags.

He leaves his parents, four brothers and three sisters.

Cards Usable At Newman

Anyone who has a card at the Public Library may use it at the Newman school branch library, Mrs. Mabel Cline, Newman librarian, said today.

The Newman branch, only grade school library in the city, is open three days a week, Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. and Friday from 1 to 4:30 p. m.

Circulation of books there increased 1,688 the first six months of this year, Mrs. Cline said. Most of the increase was in the juvenile department which has a summer vacation book club of 45 children.

The branch library contains 3,300 books, two-thirds of which are for juvenile readers. However, Mrs. Cline said that the library also offers a wide variety of reading matter for adults, including westerns, mysteries, classics, cookbooks, biographies, child psychology, and books on interior decorating.

Man Admits 2 Murders

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. —(U.P.)—A rejected lover was charged today with slaying the wealthy parents of the 52-year-old man his 18-year-old sweetheart married.

Sheriff Boadley Davenport said that Harry Edward Kilgore, 25, admitted killing elderly Dr. and Mrs. C. B Martin because he left they had influenced his girl to marry their son.

The girl, Ruth McKinney, was honeymooning in Siloam Springs, Ark., with the Martins' son, Stonewall, whom she married a week ago.

The bodies of the doctor and his wife were found yesterday in the blood-splattered bedroom of their colonial farm near here. Both had been shot in the head. Dr. Martin was 80. His wife was 79.

"Kilgore said in a signed statement that he was mad because Martin married her," the sheriff said. "He said he thought that because the elder Martins had money they had helped lure the girl away from him. He said he had been thinking a lot about it."

Truck Too Heavy

Homer Halt, Berrien, Mich., was fined $10 and costs in municipal court today for operating an overloaded motor vehicle, and John G. Runyan, Mansfield, R. D. 2, was fined $5 and costs for failing to register a motor vehicle.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1948

One difficulty, in the midst of a political campaign, is to distinguish between a principle and a prejudice.

The high price of meat would tend to increase the ranks of vegetarians—if it weren't for the high price of vegetables.

Place among the "good news" items an announcement by the National Peach Council that this bids fair to be a good peach year.

Changes Advised After Traffic Survey

AT LONG LAST Mansfield city council has something definite to work toward in matters pertaining to betterment of present traffic conditions and preparation for anticipated increase in the number of motor vehicles using city streets.

It seems worthy of note that conclusions reached and recommendations made by an outside expert on traffic problems follow closely the suggestions made six months ago by Frend C. Boals, Mansfield's traffic commissioner, who has given years of study to this subject.

Apparently the greatest obstacle to proposed changes will be the necessity for discarding long-established habits of some motorists and adjustment to restrictions imposed by establishing several one-way streets.

Aside from the recognized need for more off-street parking space in the downtown section, action on the one-way street proposal seems the most logical for quick adoption as there is no apparent justification for delaying a step that must sometime be taken.

Suggestion that a roadway be opened through Central park to connect Park avenue, east and west, seems quite natural as coming from a non-resident observer and has been mentioned frequently in the past. It does not take into account, however, the large part that this central beauty spot has played in Mansfield history nor the sentiment that attaches to it. It may be doubted if the time is yet ripe for such a drastic change—although it is a suitable subject for thought and discussion.

Major and minor recommendations as to advisable changes in traffic regulations are properly being considered by both the traffic committee of city council and the Chamber of Commerce traffic and highway committee, and it may be hoped that some beneficial action will result.

Hope To Reduce Holiday Death Toll

APPROACH of another of those Saturday-through-Monday holidays causes a disturbed feeling among those who give thought to the heavy toll of accidents associated with such occasions.

J. C. Hiestand, president of the Ohio State Safety Council, emphasizes the fact that each of these extended week-end holidays has been marked by a large number of fatal accidents—and adds that the Fourth of July period has been the most deadly.

Traffic accidents, it is forecast, will claim the most victims, with drownings in second place, while falls and fires will vie for third place.

Observation leads to the conclusion that most motoring accidents will occur because of the type of drivers who are unwilling to "wait a minute." Various studies indicate that even in heavy traffic, drivers who will wait just one minute will avoid the customary causes of smashups.

Non-collision mishaps, it is also noted, result from unwise efforts to save a minute. The majority of "driving off the road" or "overturn" accidents result from too much speed at the wrong places.

Drownings will occur because folks will ignore four fundamentals of safe swimming: 1. Swim in familiar waters and accompanied by others able to swim. 2. Do your swimming near the shore. Go half as far as you think you can, then you can swim back. 3. Leave the water as soon as you become tired or chilled. 4. Wait as least an hour after eating before you go into the water.

Mr. Hiestand expresses fear that about 100 Ohioans will suffer fatal accidents in the three days. He expects there will be 35 traffic deaths, 20 drownings, 15 fatal falls, 15 dead from burns or explosions, with an assortment of causes for the others.

More Cells Needed In 'Death Row'

THERE'S a grewsome note in that announcement of intended increase in the number of cells in "death row" at the Ohio penitentiary.

These are the cells in which men convicted of capital offenses await the day on which they are to be marched to a small room, placed in the electric chair and put to death.

"We're filled up now," said the warden, "and indications are we'll be needing more cells in the immediate future."

There's a thought for boys who are now indulging in what are regarded as minor offenses against the law. One thing leads to another, and it is not a long step from petty thefts and acts of vandalism, to more serious crimes.

It might be well for juvenile offenders to be given an opportunity to have a look at that electric chair in the small room at the state penitentiary. Even the cells at the state reformatory here are not likely to be appealing to youthful offenders—but it is a disturbing thought that more cells are needed in death row.

The new 200-inch telescope at Palomar Observatory, Calif., has extended the human vision farther than ever before. Wonder if eventually one may be able to discern a house or apartment for rent, moderately priced?

Ever since that western tour it seems that President Truman should also be warned against the danger of overconfidence.

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Similarities and Differences Observed

THIS writer has had the somewhat unusual privilege of working with both Roosevelt and Dewey in more than one political campaign. Their methods suggest many comparisons which reveal some distinct similarities and more dissimilarities.

It is clear that Dewey if elected will, like Roosevelt, be a strong and positive political leader. Time will tell how well Dewey will succeed, but there can be no doubt that he will bring to the job methods and qualities which will occupy the interest of political students for years to come.

It should be noted that I am describing them here solely as political managers, not as makers of government policies or party ideology.

Roosevelt was always more concerned with political organization than with ideas and policies. He was an activist. He loved people, especially political people. He largely delegated the preliminary formulation of policies to others, and when those policies were brought in, he judged them on a political background. Was this the time to advocate this or that? What effect would this or that have on the campaign?

Roosevelt was quick to grasp an idea and excellent in his power of analysis. Moreover, when he accepted a policy, he knew how to dramatize it.

But all through the years, especially during the years before he was governor of New York, he spent much more time in establishing and securing contacts throughout the country than in studying economic and social problems. And in his campaigns he carefully directed every move of his political managers.

DEWEY, too, is like that. His managers — Jaeckle, Brownell, Sprague and Lockwood—are of his own choosing. He spends hours with them discussing strategy, and the final decision is always Dewey's.

He lacks the personal warmth and liking for people in politics which distinguished Roosevelt, but be is a better and quicker judge of their character and motives. He has a capacity for driving questions at a man than is often mistaken for hostility. This method is not meant to offend. It springs from a genuine desire to get the right answers.

He will knock down a proposition with seeming finality, but only for the purpose of making the proposer give better reasons. His intimates know this and literally dig to the marrow of their brains to defend what they propose.

When the decision is made, Dewey therefore has the best possible reasons for making it and the best means of defending it.

Dewey is a harder worker than was Roosevelt. He relaxes less and cannot so easily turn to diversion. He has few hobbies. His mind is vastly more organized than was Roosevelt's. The great generalities of Roosevelt, which were never spelled out, would have been carefully appraised word for word by Dewey. They would have been more accurately phrased, but perhaps not so seductively.

The new national chairman, Hugh D. Scott, jr., is going to find not only that he is going to work harder than he ever dreamed he would, but that somebody else will be a real chairman of the board. That will be Dewey himself.

Moving Toward Change

By THOMAS L. STOKES

THE Republican convention in Philadelphia opened up the question of a long-overdue reform by one sentence in its platform:

"We favor a revision of the procedure for the election of the president and vice president which will more exactly reflect the popular vote."

This was timely and appropriate for, during the last Congress, such a proposed reform by constitutional amendment was approved by the judiciary committees of both House and Senate and reached the calendar, though failing of final action.

It was sponsored jointly by a Republican and a Democrat—in the Senate by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (R-Mass), and in the House by Rep. Ed Gossett (D-Tex).

Consequently endorsement of such a reform in principle in the Republican platform might very properly be followed by endorsement in the Democratic platform at the forthcoming Philadelphia convention. That would put it in a favorable legislative spot in Congress.

Senator Lodge's influence was seen in approval of the reform by the Republicans. He was chairman of the resolutions committee that drafted the platform.

The Lodge-Gossett proposal calls for abolition of the electoral college as such, though retaining the electoral vote, and for substitution of what would amount to popular election of president and vice president.

This would be done by giving to each candidate in each state the proportion of the state's electoral vote represented by his percentage of the vote in the state.

For a simple example—if the vote of Ohio were divided 60-40 between the two major parties, then the candidates of one party would receive 15 electoral votes, the other, 10 electoral votes. As it is now the candidate who gets the majority of votes gets the whole electoral vote of a state—in Ohio, for instance, all of the 25 electorial votes.

Minority Can Win.

WHILE the need for such a reform long has been recognized to avoid what already has happened three times in our history, that is, that the candidate with the smaller popular vote has become president through the existing electoral system, there are other persuasive reasons which are dramatized at this very time.

One is the situation in the South growing out of resentment over President Truman's civil rights program. That has provoked proposals that a state committee be given authority to order the whole electoral vote of a state cast against the president, no matter what his popular vote may be. That would be impossible under the Lodge-Gossett reform.

Another healthy effect envisaged in the South would be encouragement for development of a real two-party system in that section.

By making it possible for Republicans to get credit in electorial votes for the minority of votes they always poll in the South, it would be worthwhile to vote the Republicn ticket there, for Republican votes would count. Senator Lodge says this would probablyg induce Republican candidates to campaign in the South.

It is at least helpful that the change to a popular vote system has been projected for thinking and discussion.

Victims Are Crooks, Too.

Reading the memoirs of con men like "Yellow Kid" Weil, whose autobiography is a new contribution to an extensive literature, one is ever amazed at the simplicity of the successful swindle.

The one requirement is simply that the sucker have larceny in his heart. It follows that you can't cheat an honest man.

The perfect con game is the "fixed" horse race on which the victim is induced to put a large bet. Having been taken for his wad, he, being a party to what purportedly was a conspiracy, is hardly in a position to scream for the law. Examine the mechanics of any con game and it will be seen this principle applies: There must be a streak of avarice in the victim.—Detroit News.

Housing Frauds In Texas Being Probed

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Three weeks ago, this columnist reported that about 150 cases of housing frauds against veterans had been referred to the U. S. District Attorney in Dallas, Texas, but that not one indictment had been brought. Several prominent citizens, including members of the Dallas Home Builders Association, it was stated, were involved.

The U. S. district attorney, Frank Potter, immediately hurled the charge of "liar." Nonetheless, Attorney General Tom Clark has now sent a special assistant, Philip W. Yager, to Dallas, together with deputy housing expediter Morris S. Verner jr., and a special grand jury has been called to probe these frauds. In addition, the Veterans Administration admitted publicly that some 150 fraud cases were hanging fire.

However, here is something else which the Veterans Administration has not yet made public. In its files are some revealing letters written by its representative, R. F. Andrews, chief of the Veterans Loan Guaranty Service in Dallas. Here are some excerpts from them:

On Feb. 18, Andrews reported to Washington: "Mr. Godfrey of the Dallas Home Builders in telephonic conversation with Mr. Baker, Loan Guaranty officer, Dallas, today stated that the side-payment cases now in the hands of the U. S. Attorney in Dallas are progressing to his, Mr. Godfrey's satisfaction. The innuendo is obvious."

The "side-payment" cases refer to the practice of charging veterans a fee above the limit permitted by the GI Bill of Rights. This fee is paid on the side and concealed from the Veterans Administration.

This columnist previously reported that fraud cases involving members of the Dallas Home Builders had been referred to the U. S. Attorney in Dallas, but no action taken.

* * *

"Prominent Citizens."

ON JUNE 4, Andrews again reported to the Veterans Administration in Washington:

"It would appear that Washington (the justice department) has directed vigorous prosecution . . . But procrastination is the thief of time.

"In instances where so-called 'prominent citizens' as termed by the U. S. attorney's staff, are involved, it is most convenient to find excuses to postpone from one grand jury to another.

"A member of the Dallas Loan Guaranty Division was in the U. S. attorney's office while interrogations were being made concerning overpayments, and an operator admitted receiving $2,500 overpayments, as 'that was my sales price,' and curtly inquired: 'what do you intend to do about it?'

"The answer was negative, as the operator was a 'prominent citizen'."

Again on June 10, Andrews made the following report regarding U. S. Attorney Frank Potter whom this columnist charged with dragging his feet.

"In view of the indication in these letters that the U. S. attorney's office may not be properly cooperating in the prosecution of the persons and corporations involved, it is thought that perhaps you may decide to bring the matter specifically to the attorney general."

* * *

Frauds In Ft. Worth.

ANDREWS also reported to the Veterans Administration that the side-payment complaints referred to Potter totalled more than $100,000.

Regarding near-by Ft. Worth, the Veterans Administration official reported:

"In Ft. Worth one operator, Whitehall and Williams, has been reported as collecting overpayment on all transactions. Cases were presented to the district attorney 18 months or more ago with no action whatsoever to date, other than shuttling them back to the regional chief attorney 'for more information'."

Warren On Argentina.

CALIFORNIA'S able Governor Earl Warren really bowled over newsmen who interviewed him for the first time after his nomination for vice president. In fact, Warren's frankness was so refreshing to newsmen accustomed to pussyfooting politicians that he seemed like an iced drink in an oasis.

Warren was the one prominent Republican politician who criticized the Republican 80th Congress in Philadelphia, defied the Old Guard by publicly suggesting Congress should return to Washington and finish its work, also showed a broad grasp of basic foreign policy.

The California governor was asked what he thought of the Peron government in Argentina.

"It's a dictatorship," replied Warren bluntly. "But it's not the only dictatorship in this hemisphere, either."

"What would you do about it?" Warren was asked. "Would you break off relations?"

"Not necessarily," Warren replied. "I think even though the Argentine government is a dictatorship, the Argentine people are our friends. I think it is important that we do everything possible to keep the Argentine people and the American people friendly with each other. That's the important thing."

Warren believes governments start wars, but peoples preach peace.

Note — While in California recently President Truman forfeited all chances of making a campaign against Warren by saying. "Warren is really a good Democrat, only he doesn't know it."

Assignment: America

No Roughness, Please

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON — Being only a part-time observer in these matters and not at all involved politically, it is perhaps permissible for this correspondent to be amused at the growing signs of frustration you see on the faces of some Republican campaigners nowadays.

The reason is that they are quietly getting the word from party headquarters to start pulling their punches somewhat when talking about "Democrats" in general.

They may, of course, continue lambasting at will the Democratic party bosses, bureaucrats and the like. But the ordinary little fellow (if there is such a guy) whose only sin, from the G. O. P. point of view, is that he has voted Democrat during the past sixteen years must be let off lightly with the prodigal-son treatment.

And that comes from none other than a fellow named Thomas E. Dewey who currently aspires to set up housekeeping at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue here in Washington.

Dewey who, whatever his critics may say about him otherwise, certainly wasn't behind the door when brains were passed out, set the pace up at Philadelphia the other day, shortly after being selected as Republican standard-bearer for the big race.

He confidently predicted that the Republican party would be joined by "millions of Democrats and independents" next November to give the nation a "new administration" . . . i.e., G.O.P.

To state the situation tersely: If that doesn't happen, he won't be elected!

There is nothing personal or partisan about such an observation. It merely is a re-phrasing of the facts obvious in American political history. So evenly divided are the two parties, generally speaking, that political patronage inevitably brings a plurality to the one in power during a particularly long reign.

* * *

Treat 'Em Kindly.

TO OUST the incumbents, then, always requires the support of some of their former followers, as well as the solid backing of the challenging party. That certainly was true back in 1932—but more of that later.

During the Republican convention, the political necessity of distinguishing between the administrative type of Democrat and the ordinary, garden-variety voting Democrat was ignored at first by the eager orators who could hardly wait for the bell to come out slugging.

Former President Herbert Hoover (and who should know such things better) provided a subtle warning by devoting his speech to constructive counsel, rather than sweeping criticisms. Senator Harry Cain sharply cautioned that the party still could fall flat on its face before November.

But it remained for candidate Dewey to remind the boys that it was necessary to court the Democratic voters, even while belaboring the Democratic bosses.

Going back to 1932, that is exactly what the late Franklin D. Roosevelt did when he more than reversed Herbert Hoover's previous victory over Al Smith with a record-breaking margin of more than seven million popular votes.

How he did it was epitomized by the perhaps apocryphal tale newsmen tell down in Georgia about a venerable southern gentleman who had something less than no love at all for the entire Roosevelt clan. He was fond of entertaining visiting northerners with torrid remarks about F.D.R., until inevitably they would ask how he had last voted.

"Suh," he would say, drawing himself up in dignity, "I'm a Democrat, like my pappy and grandpappy, so naturally I voted for him. But it's you blankety-blanked, party-jumping Republicans who elected him."

Dewey obviously is out to reverse that procedure.

One Man's Opinion

—By WALTER KIERNAN

IT LOOKS like Ike Eisenhower will be drafted before any 19-year-olds . . . Registration hasn't begun but he's getting "Greetings" from the Democrats.

* * *

It's not that they dislike Harry but they've taken hotel rooms for five days and they need a little opposition to keep the convention going.

* * *

The Democrats figure the Republicans went to Philadelphia with eight candidates and they'd like to have a choice of two . . . A choice of one can be confining.

* * *

I don't say that Harry is in danger but if that inspection train has steam up he'd better get aboard again . . . The main line looks wide open from here.

But I understand that Ike has instructed his secretary to tell anyone who looks like a Democratic state chairman that he is at lunch and won't be back until December.

Farmer's Diary

Destructive Hail Storm

By CALVIN A. BYERS

A SUDDEN storm tore through our valley in the early morning. We were awakened by the crash of hail against our metal roof. The roar of thunder followed each lightning glare by only a few seconds.

Going sleepily to close the hinged windows over the kitchen sink, I was drenched by sheets of rain driving from the west. The bottom fields, on our neighbor's land and our own, were, I saw, under water.

As soon as the storm had passed, we went out to investigate. Going after the cows, the boys complained of the hailstones feeling harsh to bare feet. Hidden in the grass, they still made their chill presence felt, sharply.

Corn leaves were shredded to ribbons that floated on the muddy water. It was impossible to tell what damage had been done to our soys, now showing their first sprouts. I got into the car, and drove around the back road over Honey Creek. The stream boiled and raced. A neighbor whose soybean field has been green for some days with thrifty plants showing their third leaf, was standing overlooking the ruin. The two seed leaves had been stripped off by the hail and the stems of the beans stood like stiff straws set in the wet earth. I saw him shake his grizzled head, sadly.

A killdeer wheeled and screamed, lit gracefully then feigned a crippled wing and fluttered along the muddy edge of the field. The farmer didn't notice. He was staring at a gully that had broken through his garden patch, washing out or half burying the plants that the hail had left. Broad cabbage leaves looked like sieves—carrots and turnips were flattened and half covered with sand and gravel.

Similar new-made gullies had appeared in the upland fields of corn even though strips of cultivated land are narrow. In spots the silt and gravel had spilled over the high banks of the road and washed down into the ditch where it made fans of fine soil. I knew that tons of even finer earth had gone down the creek in that mad rush of boiling water.

Only on the fields of grass or the woodlands there was no runoff.

Flash floods like this are emphatic teachers, if a farmer has his eyes open. They furnish an unanswerable argument in favor of grassland and tree crop farming, as a permanent agriculture.

MARILYN JEANNE SCHILL WED TO DARYLE K. MONG

Formal Open Church Ceremony Solemnized Wednesday Evening at Central Methodist Church.

IN A PRETTY candlelight service, Miss Marilyn Jeanne Schill became the bride of Daryle Keith Mong Wednesday evening at 7:15 p. m. in the Central Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. J. Frank Stewart officiated for the double ring service. Open church was observed. Miss Schill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Schill, 191 Marlow road, and Mr. Mong is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mong, 137 Stewart avenue.

Before an altar decorated with seven branch candelabra, two beauty baskets of pink shattered carnations, blue delphinium blossoms and pink roses, Miss Schill was given in marriage by her father.

During the ceremony, Miss Elizabeth Burneson played "I Love You Truly" on the organ.

Miss Schill wore an imported white dotted marquisette gown made by her mother. A plain marquisette bertha with an off-the-shoulder ruffle was trimmed with seed pearls. The gown had full push-up sleeves. The skirt was in three ruffled tiers with the bottom extending into a train. The white fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a bandeaux of rosettes made of the material matching the gown. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible, a gift from her mother.

Miss Lucie Ann Davis, a close friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a dress made like the bridal gown except with short puffed sleeves and ruffled mits in pale green.

Misses Joan and Margaret Van Tilburg, close friends of the bride, were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were like the maid of honor's in pale yellow and pale pink, respectively. Dianna Kneeland, cousin of the bride, served as the flower girl. She wore a powder blue dress made like the attendants. Roy Lee Bates, friend of the couple, was the ring bearer.

The attendants wore headpieces like the bride's in colors to match their dresses. They carried natural straw baskets filled with pastel colored summer flowers and ivy. The flower girl's basket was a miniature of the bridemaids, from which she threw rose petals before the bride.

Mrs. Schill chose a silk pastel print dress with white accessories. Her white straw hat was trimmed with flowers, matching her dress and she wore a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Mong wore a navy blue dress with grey and white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Cuvier V. Mong served his brother as best man.

Donald Yeager, John Clark, M/Sgt. Charles Bates, all friends of the groom from Mansfield, and S/Sgt. Earl Tarvin of Ashland, uncle of the bride, ushered the guests to their pews.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at the Mansfield Leland Hotel. Refreshments were served at one long table centerd with a wedding cake. Candles and the baskets of flowers carried by the attendants were on each side of the centerpiece. At each end of the table the beauty baskets were used. Everything was carried out in the pastel colors of the bridesmaids dresses.

For an undisclosed honeymoon, the new Mrs. Mong wore an aqua gaberdine suit with her white orchid and pink milan straw hat trimmed with flowers and black velvet ribbon.

After their return on July 6, they will reside with the bride's parents on Marlow road.

The bride graduated from Mansfield Senior high school and Miami Jacobs college. She is a member of Alpha Iota sorority. Mr. Mong is a graduate of Mansfield Senior high school and spent four years in the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Mong is an employe in the payroll department of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation and a dancing instructor. Mr. Mong is also employed in the payroll department of the Westinghouse.

Out-of-town guests were present from Bell Vernon, Pittsburgh and Knox, Pa., Rontoul, Ill., Cincinnati, Columbus, Troy, West Carrolton, Cleveland, Shelby, Butler and Ashland, Ohio.

Friends Honor Miss Jundt With Shower

Miss Elfriede Jundt who will become the bride of Donald Moreland July 9 was honored recently at a surprise personal shower given by Miss Mary Nash, 418 Lida street, and Miss Martha Permar of Wooster.

Twelve guests were present at the party and were divided into two teams for the evening's diversion. With magazine clippings to aid them they compiled a letter from the bride to the bridegroom and one from Mr. Moreland to Miss Jundt.

The shower gifts were presented in a wagon on a table decorated with pink and green crepe paper. The honoree's nickname, "Friede," was written on the side of the wagon.

Lunch was served at a late hour at small tables decorated with pink and green appointments. Each table was centered with a rose bowl containing pink sweetpeas and greenery.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr .and Mrs. John Jundt, 223 West Third street, and she is employed at Mansfield Senior high school as secretary to the coordinator of vocational education. She received the degree of bachelor of religious education at the Missionary Training Institute, Nyack, N. Y.

Mr. Moreland's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Moreland, Bloomfield, N. J. He served three years in the Navy and is now studying at the Nyack Missionary Training Institute where he will receive his bachelor of Theology degree.

After the wedding the couple will live at Bloomfield a few months before Mr. Moreland enters the ministry.

The marriage rite will be solemnized at 7:30 p. m. in Grace Gospel church. Open church will be observed. The nuptial music will begin at 7 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bertha Seybold Scanlon, 809 Marlow place, and Joseph N. Scanlon, Cambridge. Mr. Meehan is the son of Mrs. Charles Meehan, 146 Penn avenue. MR. AND MRS. JESSE H. BOYER, 512 Newman street, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Donna Jean, to Kenneth Delmer Berry jr., 54 Raleigh avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Berry sr. of that address.

The ceremony was solemnized June 26 at 1:30 p. m. at the St. Paul's Lutheran church. Rev. John Gensel officiated and Mrs. Louise Lisle played the nuptial music.

Decorating the altar were pink carnations, palms and two beauty baskets of red roses and white snowballs.

Ohio Mayor Will Attend Celebration

Bolivarian Plans Trip To Bolivar

NEW PHILADELPHIA — (INS) — Bernard J. Christman, mayor of the little village of Bolivar north of New Philadelphia, packed his bag today in preparation for a trip to Missouri's Bolivar and dedication there of a memorial to the "George Washington of South America."

The Missouri town will play host this week-end to many national and international dignitaries, including President Truman and Venezuela President Romula Gallegos.

Bolivar, Mo., is a town of 2,636 souls while the Ohio Bolivar has a population of only about 600. Mayor Christman was invited to represent the Ohio Bolivar at next Monday's dedication in the Missouri town named for Simon Bolivar.

Mayor Christman cancelled his July Fourth week-end plans but the Canton Timken Roller Bearing company employe didn't know where the money was coming from for the trip. However, J. E. Hurst, publisher of the New Philadelphia Daily Times, stepped in and solved the financial difficulty.

"You go right ahead and make your plans to attend the dedication," said Hurst. "The Daily Times office will take care of the expenses."

WILL LEAVE FRIDAY

Consequently, Mayor Christman plans to entrain Friday night and arrive in Bolivar, Mo., Saturday in time for the three-day celebration.

"I'm just an ordinary small town mayor and the invitation to cross the country to attend the dedication came as a big surprise to me," said the mayor.

However, the "ordinary" part of Christman's statement will be disputed by most residents of the Tuscarawas county village.

On Nov. 18 of last year, two weeks after he was elected, Christman ran right smack into the middle of a murder at neighboring Zoar. He surprised two gunmen trying to hide the body of a Boliver resident.

Christman was clubbed before he escaped to give the alarm.

The 45-year-old mayor is married and he and his wife, Bertha, have a four-year-old son, Jimmy, and two older daughters living away from home.

Perhaps the historians should be straightened out, though. Bolivar, Ohio, was first named Kellyville but the Alfred Kelly for whom it was named, objected, and it was changed to Bolivar.

Steel Issue In Dispute

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Sen Murray (D-Mont.) and his fellow members of the Senate small business committee will meet this summer to thresh out their differences over whether the nation's steel capacity is adequate on a long-term basis.

In a one-man minority report Murray split with his colleagues by advocating that the government step into the steel shortage picture with loans or, if necessary, by direct building or new plant capacity.

Murray's small business committee colleagues in a majority report dodged the question of whether plant capacity is adequate for long-term needs—as the steel industry insists—on grounds that sufficient information is not available.

Sponsors Social

The Columbian Grange at Lexington will hold an ice cream social for members and their families Saturday at 8 p. m., at the Grange hall, it was announced today.

Fair Will Exhibit Progress In Century of Railroading

CHICAGO—(U.P.)—This railroad capitol of the nation will put on a giant show here this summer to commemorate the 100th anniversary of its railroad service.

Starting in mid-July, a railroad fair will continue until shortly after Labor Day. The scene will be along the lake front, site of a Century of Progress in 1933 and 1934.

Edward Hungerford, who produced the famous railroad pageants at a Century of Progress, and the New York World's Fair in 1939, again will present a "history" of railroading on a large stage.

Almost all the railroads of the country will be represented, and the entire drive along the lake from 18th Street south to 35th Street will contain exhibits and scenes from the rights-of-way of the participating roads. The Santa Fe, for example, will transport a group of Navajo Indians from their territory and build an Indian village at the fair.

CANADIANS INVITED

Invitations have been sent to the two principal carriers in Canada—the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National. Bids also have been sent to the railroads of Mexico.

In addition to the exhibits planned by each individual road, patrons of the fair will see "name" trains, too. Such famous trains as the Chief of the Santa Fe, the 20th Century Limited of the New York Central, the Golden State Limited of the Rock Island-Southern Pacific, the Empire Builder of the Great Northern-Burlington—to name but a few—may be on display.

Present plans call for one such train to be on exhibition and open for inspection daily.

The trains will not be replicas, but the regular equipment of each train, taken out of service for the few days it will be on display so patrons may see the latest types of accommodations offered by the carriers.

In addition to the most modern equipment, the oldest locomotive in the Midwest will be shown in contrast. It is the Pioneer of the Chicago & North Western, which made the first run on the road to West Chicago, Ill., in 1848.

TO SHOW NARROW GAUGE

One of the feature attractions is expected to be a narrow gauge train to be operated by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. The train, tentatively scheduled to carry eight small cars, and pulled by a regular steam locomotive, will operate from the north to the south end of the grounds, hauling passengers.

Old-fashioned stations will be built at each end of the fair to act as terminals.

Old style signals, switches, telegraph equipment, etc., will be used to give the patrons a taste of railroading in the old days. Crews will be dressed in uniforms in vogue back in the '90s.

The tiny train, with kerosene lamps in the coaches, open vestibules and locomotives belching smoke and cinders as it pulls along at 15 miles an hour, should present quite a contrast to the modern Illinois Central Panama Limited—standing on a siding in modern dress, with a sleek, powerful Diesel-electric locomotive at the head end.

Flying In and Out of Mansfield

Model Plane Fans Use Flying Circle

MANSFIELD MUNICIPAL AIRPORT—A new model flying circle recently was completed by Harold Heston, Arthur Aegerter and Myron Kalish. It is being used almost every evening by model flying enthusiasts. All of the models are control line models.

Heston, Aegerter and Kalish specialize in high speed jet model flying. The highest speed attained to date by jets was 143 MPH on a 70-foot control line.

Clifford Durbin specializes in aerobatics and won first place in a model meet held in Akron Sunday. Durbin is president of the local model club.

The flying circle is located on the extreme south side of the airport along old State Route 13.

BACK TO LIFE—It took seven minutes to restore life to pretty Mrs. Julia Brittan (above) after her heart stopped beating while she was being anesthetized for an appendectomy in Chicago. Doctor Max Thorek made three incisions leading to her heart and then massaged it with his hand. A feeble beat rewarded him for his daring surgery less than 30 seconds later. He then proceeded with the appendectomy and the patient is now "doing nicely."

Taxable Payroll Income Drops Two Million Here

Total taxable payroll income in Mansfield dropped $2,346,292 from the third quarter of 1944 to the third quarter of 1947, a report of the Ohio State Employment service indicated today.

C. W. Handley, manager of the local office, said total taxable payroll income here in 1944 was $14,868,356. Third quarter 1947 reports placed the figure at $12,522,064.

Handley attributed the reduction to the slackening off of overtime work since the war.

Despite the reduction, Mansfield was fifteenth in a list of all Ohio cities according to amount of taxable payrolls and stood well to the front in comparison with other cities of its size.

The report showed that 45 per cent of 21,863 workers listed were employed by firms with more than 300 workers. Eleven per cent were employes of firms with 100 to 299 workers, 11.4 per cent were employed by firms with 50 to 99 workers, 9.7 per cent by firms with 25 to 49 workers, 15 per cent by firms with eight to 24 workers, and 7.8 per cent by firms with les sthan eight workers.

A slight shifting of workers from firms with 100 to 299 workers to firms with more than 300 workers during the three-year period was indicated.

In the eyes of millions of Tibetans and other orientals, the American custom of a wife having only one husband at a time is highly immoral.

State Must Give Data on Poison

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Judge Nelson Schwab ruled in criminal court Wednesday that Mrs. Mary Clay Watts, 43, held on a charge of murder, is entitled to know the kind and type of poison from which the state contends her 11-year-old daughter, Barbara Ann, died May 15.

Mrs. Watts is scheduled to go on trial Nov. 1 in connection with the child's death.

Truman's Faithfulness to Gang Recalls History of James Boys

NEW YORK—President Harry Truman's bravado as an alumnus of the Pendergast gang is a reminder of the attitude of many earlier Missourians toward the Jesse James gang of cut-throats.

There is an important difference, however.

President Truman was an active member of the non-criminal division of the Pendergast gang.

The respectable partisans of the Jesse James gang were not even remotely concerned in its operations.

General Jo Shelby, a snorting, old, Confederate cavalry soldier, said the James brothers, Jesse and Frank, were members of Quantrill's guerrillas, who reported to him in 1863, at Prairie Grove, Mo., that they had taken part in a counter-attack which rescued General Shelby when he was captured. Therefore, years afterward, he would volunteer no information "to officers hunting these now notorious outlaws."

★

There were many others of similar feeling who had no connection with the James gang.

President Truman was a Missouri boy from a section, the southwest, which was still bloody ground when he was born and isn't exactly effete today. He was born only two years after the James gang was broken up by Governor Thomas Theodore Crittenden, who had been a colonel in the Union army.

Missouri had become known as the robber state. The Jameses were impartial terrorists, killing wantonly and indiscriminately, the unwary and unarmed as well as victims on guard.

Some accounts of the Centralia battle said Jesse and Frank reloaded pistols for Bill Anderson, their company commander in the Quantrill outfit, while he shot dead 32 unarmed, sick Union soldiers going to a hospital.

In 1897, Walter Williams, later to become dean of the Missouri school of journalism, wrote a fine story of Frank James's return to the Centralia battleground outside town. Frank said he and Jesse did not go into town with Anderson to waylay the train on which the sick men were trapped but did fight in the slaughter of a union battalion in fair battle in the field.

Harry Truman, as senator, openly tried to protect the criminals of the Pendergast gang from justice and pardoned many who were jailed despite his help.

His hero was no dashing horseman but a repulsive old ignoramus with the soul of a dive-keeper.

★

When Truman was vice president, he flew in a big army plane, to which he had no right, to Pendergast's funeral.

Mr. Truman had reasons, valid in the underworld and in decent society, which he sometimes frequented, to repudiate old Tom. But he stuck with him to the end and to his memory beyond the grave and after he had become President of the United States.

Claims Mystery Tune Has No Name; Television Brings Out Whiskers

BROADWAY CHOP-CHOP—The "Stop the Music" program's new "mystery tune" is the marchy thing that starts all Fox Movietone newsreels, isn't it? It was composed especially by 20th Century-Fox Studio's Alfred Newman and it never had a name before. . . . Isn't the "mysterious" woman who handed out all those dollar bills to derelicts at the Municipal Lodging House Mrs. Wm. Fox, wife of the founder of that studio? She's oof'ly rich and occupies several palatial floors in the Marguery at 270 Park. . . . Gov. Dewey put that brown "gook" on his face during one televised interview. When he made his acceptance speech at the Convention he had no time for it, which is why he looked like he needed a shave. Everybody does — without the makeup—even women. . . . Gen. Eisenhower flatly stated (at Herbert Bayard Swope's house the other night) he positively wouldn't accept the Democratic nomination even "if it is unanimous." . . . He told the N. Y. Times: "I stand pat." He can afford to stand pat since all the polls show he has the approval of the majority of the people. . . . We will continue urging the people to bombard him with "Please!" telegrams until he personally tells us to shut up.

★

The MGM people had the sign up on Broadway for Irving Berlin's "Easter Parade" click and then made the sign-makers take it down and do it right. They omitted his name, which is part of the film's title. . . . If you smack up the rear end of your '48 Caddy, it'll cost you about $700 to have it put back in shape. . . . MGM is looking for a kid star to take over the roles little Margaret O'Brien has outgrown. . . . That narcotics agent who falsely arrested a local sports writer (in the Yankee pressbox) has been fired. . . . In editing the Churchill memoirs, Life researchers nailed plenty of inaccuracies in dates and events. When advised—Churchill growled that he wanted his stuff to run the way he wrote it. . . . Little known sidelight: Years ago political parties decided on emblems so illiterate voters could identify candidates. . . . Mrs. Rigby Leaves $513,515

Family, Employes Share Property

Mrs. Mary Black Rigby, widow of J. A. Rigby, who died April 1, left a net estate appraised at $513,515, an inventory in probate court showed today.

John H. Tucker jr., of Shreveport, La., her son-in-law, and the Citizens National Bank and Trust company, were named as administrators. C. F. Routzahn, S. Glenn Vinson and Robert B. Black, were appraisers.

Property listed in the inventory included farm animals, two autos, household furnishings and other personal property valued at $10,235; money listed at $139.75; stocks, bonds, checks and mortgage notes valued at $355,906.98; bank accounts valued at $78,083.43, and real estate in the amount of $71,150.

Mrs. Rigby's late husband, J. A. Rigby, was a Mansfield business leader and the founder of the Rigby Wholesale Cigar company here. He also was active in Richland county banking activities.

Under terms of Mrs Rigby's will, written Nov. 4, 1943, and two codicils, written Oct. 15, 1944 and May 4, 1946, most of the estate will go to Mrs. Hortense Rigby Tucker, of Shreveport, La., Mrs. Rigby's daughter.

Others named to share the estate were Augusta F. Black, a sister, who is to receive $100 per month for life as well as the income from a $10,000 trust fund to be deposited with the Citizens National Bank and Trust company.

In the event of the death of her sister, the fund is to be divided evenly between two nieces, Mrs. Margaret Black Manz and Miss Mary Black. In addition the two nieces will receive $5,000 each.

Others named in the will were a companion, Margaret Willnauer, who will receive $2,000, and Nicholas Schemine, her gardener and chauffeur, who will receive $1,000

Ignore Signs, Three Fined

Motorists Cited For Driving on Wet Paint

Three drivers who didn't believe in signs were fined or forfeited bonds in traffic court yesterday afternoon.

Fined were Paul R. Smith, Crestline, and John S. Kohler, Mansfield, R. D. 4. Frank J. Urban, Cleveland, forfeited a $10 bond. State patrolmen said the drivers failed to heed "wet paint" signs on road markings on U. S. Route 42.

Fines of $10 were assessed against Harold P Aley, Perrysville, for unsafe operation; Harland P. Mowry, Bellville, for speeding; Paul R. Brumenschenkel, Mansfield, R. D. 4, for operating a motor vehicle on more than one-half of the highway; Samuel Hershiser, Attica, for failing to signal a left turn, and John E. Wheatley, Mansfield, R. D. 4, for speeding.

Wilmer Shoup, Massillon, was fined $15 and costs for failing to signal a left turn. Shoup was the driver of a car in the Saturday night accident which resulted in the death of Russell H. McPeek, 24-year-old Marion motorcyclist, on U. S. Route 30 near Vetsville.

Paul Zernis, 394½ South Main street, was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond after entering an innocent plea to a paternity charge. He was cited in Mansfield court yesterday.

Family Brings Touch Of Holland to City

By NITA BRANSON

There's a bit of Holland in the yard at the home of native Hollanders on Remy avenue.

A miniature windmill, replica of the kind that Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Noordhoff remember from their native country, is attracting visitors to the Noordhoff home at 292 Remy avenue.

The windmill which stands taller than a man was built by John Noordhoff, 191 East Arch street, son of the Lambert Noordhoffs.

While the elder Noordhoffs came to this country when they were young, they recall fondly the good times they had as children in the country of windmills, dikes, and canals. They moved to Mansfield about three weeks ago from Bellville.

The small windmill was placed in the middle of a rock garden and encircled by a small white fence. It is built of red shingles and is about three and a half feet above the rock pile. To most Mansfielders it looks like an average windmill.

COPIES GRINDING MILL

"But it isn't," Mrs. Noordhoff said. "The one John built is a grinding mill. If there isn't enough wind, men can stand on the small platform at the rear and push the mill around. John made it from a picture but he used some of his own ideas, too."

Although the elder Noordhoff, 74, is one of 11 children and Mrs. Noordhoff had 11 brothers and sisters, there has been no word from any of them since before the war. The Mansfielders are the only members of their families who came to America.

"We used to hear when my mother was living but since she's gone, it's different," Mrs. Noordhoff said.

Besides the son, John, the Noordhoffs have three other children, Lawrence and Mrs. Freda Gelhaus, both of Chicago, and Henry, at home.

Ask Check On Home

A representative of the state welfare department will be asked to inspect the Richland County Children's Home and make recommendations for its future use.

This was the decision reached yesterday at a meeting of the county commissioners and the Child Welfare board.

Chairman John W. Selby of the county commissioners said the board had about reached the conclusion that it was useless to try to repair or remodel the 80-year-old home on Hedges street. He said, however, that the board wanted the opinion of some one from outside the county before taking steps to build a new home or remodel the old one.

The Child Welfare board recently proposed to county commissioners that the home be established on a farm property from three to five miles from Mansfield.

ALARM FAILS

Failure in the fire alarm system at the Globe Steel Abrasive company, 238 First avenue, brought firemen from Central, No. 2 and No. 4 stations out twice early today. The first alarm sounded at 5:08 a. m., the second at 7.55 a. m.

Ronald and Jacqueline Scheurer should have a good literary background if they continue to read at the pace they set last month. The two children hold the record for the largest number of books read by any member of the Newman school branch library summer vacation book club. Each has read a total of 32 books since school closed June 2. They are the children of Mrs. Esther Scheurer of First avenue. Crowding them for first place are Frederick Bogner and Terry Schmahl who have each read 30 books. Frederick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bogner of 465 Pearl street. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmahl of 382 Second avenue. Under the club plan the children are required to read at least 10 books during the summer, Mrs. Mable Cline, Newman school librarian, said.

CUPID STILL AHEAD—

Cupid got more business than the divorce court in June. The number of marriage licenses issued increased sharply while the number of divorce actions took a marked drop. Records indicated that 102 marriage licenses were issued in June as compared with 29 divorce petitions filed. May figures placed marriage licenses issued at 58 with divorces at 54. June licenses fall slightly under the same amount last year when 112 were issued. Totals for the first half of 1948 showed 373 marriage licenses issued and 240 divorce petitions filed

Truman Signs 3 Measures

Split of Dems Grows Wider

(By Associated Press)

President Truman fired three new broadsides at the Republican-controlled 80th Congress as the din of anti-Truman firing within the Democratic party grew louder today.

Bills left behind by the departed lawmakers provided the chief executive with ammunition for his latest blasts.

He signed appropriations measures for the Tennessee Valley authority and the interior department, plus a separate bill dealing with the Virgin islands—but only after whipping out separate statements critical of what he regarded as major defects in each one.

Just ahead of that action yesterday, Mr. Truman took time out for a huddle with Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath, who is calling signals for the party's convention due to open a week from Monday in Philadelphia.

McGrath told newsmen he and the President "talked about every phase of the Democratic situation currently being talked about in the newspapers."

That seemed to make it clear that the name of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower figured in the White House strategy session.

Senator Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina came back from a 45-minute talk with Eisenhower in New York earlier this week to report that he is "more convinced than ever" that the Columbia university president is the Democrats' "man of the hour."

WANTS EISENHOWER

Another southern Democrat, Lt. Gov. Handy Ellis of Alabama—who will head his states' delegation to the Philadelphia convention—said at Mobile earlier in the day he would be "tickled to death" to propose Eisenhower at the start of the nominating roll call. But he added that he will yield to Texas—the general's native state—or to Kansas—his official residence.

Ellis insisted that only an absolute refusal from Eisenhower will prevent his name from going before the convention ahead of anyone else.

One high party official here said that is exactly what most party big-wigs expect—a flat statement from the general that he could not be drafted.

This official, who declined to be quoted by name, said all the planning is being made on the assumption that Eisenhower will not be a serious contender for the presidential nomination.

But at Meriden, N. H., Harry Carlson wrote letters to his fellow Democratic national committee members urging them to try to persuade Mr. Truman to withdraw in favor of the former chief of staff.

Another possible Truman rival when the Democrats gather in Philadelphia is Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas.

In Los Angeles, State Democratic Chairman James Roosevelt didn't mention either name. But he did tell reporters that the wait-and-see attitude adopted by California's 54-vote delegation is stirring widespread interest.

Organ Music Wins Applause At Concert

The near-capacity audience at John Simpson auditorium last night approved heartily by their applause an organ program presented on a new-type electric instrument.

The entire lower floor of the auditorium was filled when R. G. Campbell, well-known organist, presented a program.

Audience favorites were the "Toccata from Symphony No. Five" by Widor, and "Clare de Lune" by DeBussy, arranged by Campbell The organist's speed and versatility were shown in Rimsky-Korsakof's "Flight of the Bumblebee," an unusual number for an organ recital.

Miss Beverly Wentz, young Mansfield singer, who presented the vocal numbers, sang several hymns as encores.

The program was played on the Connsonata, an instrument being introduced in Mansfield by the W. E. Jones company.

Mansfield's new health commissioner, Dr. Harry Wain, of Dayton who arrives here Tuesday to take over his new post, is still without a place to live, James F. Carrigan, chairman of the city health board, said today.

Carrigan renewed his plea on behalf of Dr. Wain and his family. The health board chairman asked that anyone with a five or six-room house for rent contact him at the Westinghouse plant or at his home.

"An informal joint meeting of the city and county health boards will be held Tuesday evening to welcome Dr. Wain and talk things over with him," Carrigan reported.

Milk to Hold Present Level

Mansfielders were given assurance today that milk prices will not increase at local dairies for at least a month.

Ashland plants announced there a one-cent-a-quart price increase to 20 cents for regular milk and 21 cents for homogenized milk.

Managers of Mansfield dairies said the increase puts the Ashland price on the Cleveland standard and at the same level at which milk is retailing in Mansfield.

Law Authorizes Some Rent Boosts In Area, Director Says

Many landlords in the Mansfield rental area are receiving lower rents than they could legally charge because they have failed to petition the local rent office for justifiable increases, according to Area Rent Director George Blecker.

"It seems that some property owners just aren't aware that they can obtain rent adjustments on units that were frozen at low figures if they are below the range for their particular zone," he said.

The rent director stated that it was apparent from tenants' complaints that some landlords have taken the law into their own hands and raised rents without the permission of the federal rent office.

He warned that such procedure is illegal and makes a landlord subject to compliance action or even to a treble-damage suit by his tenant. During the month of June, the Mansfield rent office collected more than $400 for tenants whose landlords raised rents without authority of the rent office. This amount does not include tenants' actions in court where they sue for treble damages.

Truman's Faithfulness to Gang Recalls History of James Boys

NEW YORK—President Harry Truman's bravado as an alumnus of the Pendergast gang is a reminder of the attitude of many earlier Missourians toward the Jesse James gang of cut-throats.

There is an important difference, however.

President Truman was an active member of the non-criminal division of the Pendergast gang.

The respectable partisans of the Jesse James gang were not even remotely concerned in its operations.

General Jo Shelby, a snorting, old, Confederate cavalry soldier, said the James brothers, Jesse and Frank, were members of Quantrill's guerrillas, who reported to him in 1863, at Prairie Grove, Mo., that they had taken part in a counter-attack which rescued General Shelby when he was captured. Therefore, years afterward, he would volunteer no information "to officers hunting these now notorious outlaws."

★

There were many others of similar feeling who had no connection with the James gang.

President Truman was a Missouri boy from a section, the southwest, which was still bloody ground when he was born and isn't exactly effete today. He was born, only two years after the James gang was broken up by Governor Thomas Theodore Crittenden, who had been a colonel in the Union army.

Missouri had become known as the robber state. The Jameses were impartial terrorists, killing wantonly and indiscriminately, the unwary and unarmed as well as victims on guard.

Some accounts of the Centralia battle said Jesse and Frank reloaded pistols for Bill Anderson, their company commander in the Quantrill outfit, while he shot dead 32 unarmed, sick Union soldiers going to a hospital.

In 1897, Walter Williams, later to become dean of the Missouri school of journalism, wrote a fine story of Frank James's return to the Centralia battleground outside town. Frank said he and Jesse did not go into town with Anderson to waylay the train on which the sick men were trapped but did fight in the slaughter of a union battalion in fair battle in the field.

Harry Truman, as senator, openly tried to protect the criminals of the Pendergast gang from justice and pardoned many who were jailed despite his help.

His hero was no dashing horseman but a repulsive old ignoramus with the soul of a divekeeper.

★

When Truman was vice president, he flew in a big army plane, to which he had no right, to Pendergast's funeral.

Mr. Truman had reasons, valid in the underworld and in decent society, which he sometimes frequented, to repudiate old Tom. But he stuck with him to the end and to his memory beyond the grave and after he had become President of the United States.

Claims Mystery Tune Has No Name; Television Brings Out Whiskers

BROADWAY CHOP-CHOP—The "Stop the Music" program's new "mystery tune" is the marchy thing that starts all Fox Movietone newsreels, isn't it? It was composed especially by 20th Century-Fox Studio's Alfred Newman, and it never had a name before. . . . When he made his acceptance speech at the Convention he had no time for it, which is why he looked like he needed a shave. Everybody does — without the makeup—even women. . . . Gen. Eisenhower flatly stated (at Herbert Bayard Swope's house the other night) he positively wouldn't accept the Democratic nomination even "if it is unanimous." . . . He told the N. Y. Times: "I stand pat." He can afford to stand pat since all the polls show he has the approval of the majority of the people. . . . We will continue urging the people to bombard him with "Please!" telegrams until he personally tells us to shut up.

Three drivers who didn't believe in signs were fined or forfeited bonds in traffic court yesterday afternoon.

Fined were Paul R. Smith, Crestline, and John S. Kohler, Mansfield, R. D. 4. Frank J. Urban, Cleveland, forfeited a $10 bond. State patrolmen said the drivers failed to heed "wet paint" signs on road markings on U. S. Route 42.

Fines of $10 were assessed against Harold P. Aley, Perrysville, for unsafe operation; Harland P. Mowry, Bellville, for speeding; Paul R. Brumenschenkel, Mansfield, R. D. 4, for operating a motor vehicle on more than one-half of the highway; Samuel Hershiser, Attica, for failing to signal a left turn, and John E. Wheatley, Mansfield, R. D. 4, for speeding

Wilmer Shoup, Massillon, was fined $15 and costs for failing to signal a left turn. Shoup was the driver of a car in the Saturday night accident which resulted in the death of Russell H. McPeek, 24-year-old Marion motorcyclist, on U. S. Route 30 near Vetsville.

Paul Zernis, 394½ South Main street, was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond after entering an innocent plea to a paternity charge. He was cited in Mansfield court yesterday.

Family Brings Touch Of Holland to City

By NITA BRANSON

There's a bit of Holland in the yard at the home of native Hollanders on Remy avenue.

A miniature windmill, replica of the kind that Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Noordhoff remember from their native country, is attracting visitors to the Noordhoff home at 292 Remy avenue.

The windmill which stands taller than a man was built by John Noordhoff, 191 East Arch street, son of the Lambert Noordhoffs.

While the elder Noordhoffs came to this country when they were young, they recall fondly the good times they had as children in the country of windmills, dikes, and canals. They moved to Mansfield about three weeks ago from Bellville.

The small windmill was placed in the middle of a rock garden and encircled by a small white fence. It is built of red shingles and is about three and a half feet above the rock pile. To most Mansfielders it looks like an average windmill.

COPIES GRINDING MILL

"But it isn't," Mrs. Noordhoff said. "The one John built is a grinding mill. If there isn't enough wind, men can stand on the small platform at the rear and push the mill around. John made it from a picture but he used some of his own ideas, too."

Although the elder Noordhoff, 74, is one of 11 children and Mrs. Noordhoff had 11 brothers and sisters, there has been no word from any of them since before the war. The Mansfielders are the only members of their families who came to America.

"We used to hear when my mother was living but since she's gone, it's different," Mrs. Noordhoff said.

Besides the son, John, the Noordhoffs have three other children, Lawrence and Mrs. Freda Gelhaus, both of Chicago, and Henry, at home.

Ask Check On Home

A representative of the state welfare department will be asked to inspect the Richland County Children's Home and make recommendations for its future use.

This was the decision reached yesterday at a meeting of the county commissioners and the Child Welfare board.

Chairman John W. Selby of the county commissioners said the board had about reached the conclusion that it was useless to try to repair or remodel the 80-year-old home on Hedges street. He said, however, that the board wanted the opinion of some one from outside the county before taking steps to build a new home or remodel the old one.

The Child Welfare board recently proposed to county commissioners that the home be established on a farm property from three to five miles from Mansfield.

The two children hold the record for the largest number of books read by any member of the Newman school branch library summer vacation book club. Each has read a total of 32 books since school closed June 2. They are the children of Mrs. Esther Scheurer of First avenue. Crowding them for first place are Frederick Bogner and Terry Schmahl who have each read 30 books. Frederick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bogner of 465 Pearl street. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmahl of 382 Second avenue. Under the club plan the children are required to read at least 10 books during the summer, Mrs. Mable Cline, Newman school librarian, said.

CUPID STILL AHEAD—

Cupid got more business than the divorce court in June. The number of marriage licenses issued increased sharply while the number of divorce actions took a marked drop. Records indicated that 102 marriage licenses were issued in June as compared with 29 divorce petitions filed. May figures placed marriage licenses issued at 58 with divorces at 54. June licenses fall slightly under the same amount last year when 112 were issued. Totals for the first half of 1948 showed 373 marriage licenses issued and 240 divorce petitions filed.

Truman Signs 3 Measures

Split of Dems Grows Wider

(By Associated Press)

President Truman fired three new broadsides at the Republican-controlled 80th Congress as the din of anti-Truman firing within the Democratic party grew louder today.

Bills left behind by the departed lawmakers provided the chief executive with ammunition for his latest blasts.

He signed appropriations measures for the Tennessee Valley authority and the interior department, plus a separate bill dealing with the Virgin islands—but only after whipping out separate statements critical of what he regarded as major defects in each one.

Just ahead of that action yesterday, Mr. Truman took time out for a huddle with Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath, who is calling signals for the party's convention due to open a week from Monday in Philadelphia.

McGrath told newsmen he and the President "talked about every phase of the Democratic situation currently being talked about in the newspapers."

That seemed to make it clear that the name of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower figured in the White House strategy session.

Senator Olin D. Johnston of South Carolina came back from a 45-minute talk with Eisenhower in New York earlier this week to report that he is "more convinced than ever" that the Columbia university president is the Democrats' "man of the hour."

WANTS EISENHOWER

Another southern Democrat, Lt. Gov. Handy Ellis of Alabama—who will head his states' delegation to the Philadelphia convention—said at Mobile earlier in the day he would be "tickled to death" to propose Eisenhower at the start of the nominating roll call. But he added that he will yield to Texas—the general's native state—or to Kansas—his official residence.

Ellis insisted that only an absolute refusal from Eisenhower will prevent his name from going before the convention ahead of anyone else.

One high party official here said that is exactly what most party big-wigs expect—a flat statement from the general that he could not be drafted.

This official, who declined to be quoted by name, said all the planning is being made on the assumption that Eisenhower will not be a serious contender for the presidential nomination.

But at Meriden, N. H., Harry Carlson wrote letters to his fellow Democratic national committee members urging them to try to persuade Mr. Truman to withdraw in favor of the former chief of staff.

Another possible Truman rival when the Democrats gather in Philadelphia is Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas.

In Los Angeles, State Democratic Chairman James Roosevelt didn't mention either name. But he did tell reporters that the wait-and-see attitude adopted by California's 54-vote delegation is stirring widespread interest.

Organ Music Wins Applause At Concert

The near-capacity audience at John Simpson auditorium last night approved heartily by their applause an organ program presented on a new-type electric instrument.

The entire lower floor of the auditorium was filled when R. G. Campbell, well-known organist, presented a program.

Audience favorites were the "Toccata from Symphony No. Five" by Widor, and "Clare de Lune" by DeBussy, arranged by Campbell. The organist's speed and versatility were shown in Rimsky-Korsakof's "Flight of the Bumblebee," an unusual number for an organ recital.

Miss Beverly Wentz, young Mansfield singer, who presented the vocal numbers, sang several hymns as encores.

The program was played on the Connsonata, an instrument being introduced in Mansfield by the W. E Jones company.

Health Chief Still Hunting House Here

Mansfield's new health commissioner, Dr. Harry Wain, of Dayton who arrives here Tuesday to take over his new post, is still without a place to live, James F. Carrigan, chairman of the city health board, said today.

Carrigan renewed his plea on behalf of Dr. Wain and his family. The health board chairman asked that anyone with a five or six-room house for rent contact him at the Westinghouse plant or at his home.

"An informal joint meeting of the city and county health boards will be held Tuesday evening to welcome Dr. Wain and talk things over with him," Carrigan reported.

Mansfielders were given assurance today that milk prices will not increase at local dairies for at least a month.

Managers of Mansfield dairies said the increase puts the Ashland price on the Cleveland standard and at the same level at which milk is retailing in Mansfield.

Law Authorizes Some Rent Boosts In Area, Director Says

Many landlords in the Mansfield rental area are receiving lower rents than they could legally charge because they have failed to petition the local rent office for justifiable increases, according to Area Rent Director George Blecker.

"It seems that some property owners just aren't aware that they can obtain rent adjustments on units that were frozen at low figures if they are below the range for their particular zone," he said.

The rent director stated that it was apparent from tenants' complaints that some landlords have taken the law into their own hands and raised rents without the permission of the federal rent office.

He warned that such procedure is illegal and makes a landlord subject to compliance action or even to a treble-damage suit by his tenant. During the month of June, the Mansfield rent office collected more than $400 for tenants whose landlords raised rents without authority of the rent office. This amount does not include tenants' actions in court where they sue for treble damages.

Bob Lemon Hurls First Night No-Hitter In Majors

Tribe Wins, 2 to 0; Three Reach First

DETROIT—(AP)—Righthander Bob Lemon, one of the main reasons the Cleveland Indians are leading the American league, turned in big time baseball's first no-hit, no-run game of 1948 as he blanked the Tigers 2 to 0 last night.

Only three Detroiters reached base—all via walks—as the 27-year-old twirler threw a baffling assortment of stuff at the Bengals.

Bob Lemon

Four of them fanned and in the crucial ninth when the Tigers were striving desperately to break Lemon's spell he really poured it on. The best the Tigers could manage in that inning was two balls dribbled back to the mound for easy putouts. The third batter fanned.

For Lemon who failed to make the grade with the Indians as a third baseman or an outfielder the win was the 11th of the season and his fifth shutout. He has lost six games.

CROWD WATCHES

A crowd of 49,628 fans saw Lemon turn in his nifty performance and as the game approached its final innings they were pulling for the Cleveland twirler to complete his no-hitter.

Hundreds of fans swarmed onto the field to shake Lemon's hand, but players and police formed a flying wedge and rushed the pitcher to the safety of the Cleveland dressing room.

There newsmen began their scores of questions.

"I had as good stuff as I ever had and I got wonderful support out there," the Cleveland no-hitter replied. He said he knew right along that he had a no-hitter in his grasp and joked about the way the Indians didn't talk to him from the sixth inning on for fear they would put a jinx on his no-hit aspirations.

The Tigers were a dejected lot as they milled about in their dressing room after nine futile innings of swinging at Lemon's stuff.

AIDED BY ERRORS

The Indians aided by two costly Tigers errors, got to Hutchinson for both their runs in the initial inning. Lou Boudreau's long double was the big wallop of the inning as he drove in run No. 1 and came home a couple of minutes later after an error and a long fly ball pushed him along.

Lemon's no-hit, no-run performance was the first ever achieved in an American league night game. It was the first such pitching accomplishment since Bill McCahan of the Philadelphia Athletics blanked the Washington Senators without a run Sept. 3, 1947.

Mayer Blasts Par With 32 At Possum Run

Joe Mayer really took the Possum Run links apart yesterday to feature play in three Westinghouse golf leagues.

The Mansfield professional cut loose with a fine 32, which is just four strokes under regulation figures. It represented the lowest nine-hole tally of the season at Possum.

Following Mayer at Possum was Carl Kushin with a 35 and Ray Malaska and Paul Jesson with 36's. Frank Cipris and N. Sholaya were the lowscorers at Coolridge with scores of 37.

Boston Trims Yanks, 7-3: Braves Increase Margin

By Associated Press

Bob Lemon's no-run-no-hit masterpiece last night made a successful prophet of Cleveland owner Bill Veeck.

The 27-year-old Indian righthander who tried his hand at pitching after failing to make the big league grade as an infielder or outfielder rewarded his boss forth by shutting out the Detroit Tigers, 2-0, without allowing a single safety.

The victory, Lemon's fifth of the season and his fifth shutout, did more than increase the Tribe's first place American league margin over the Philadelphia Athletics to a game and a half. It further solidified its position as the major step of the Indians' staff which includes the great Bob Feller.

Jack Kramer posted his seventh win of the year helping the Boston Red Sox to a 7-3 triumph over the New York Yankees. Junior Stephens drove in three runs with a home run, a double and a single. Ted Williams got a single in five times at bat to extend his consecutive streak through 12 games.

At St. Louis the Browns topped the Chicago White Sox, 2-1. A ninth inning Pete Suder homer spoiled Bob Muncrief's bid for a shutout.

The Boston Braves moved a game and a half ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league race by downing the New York Giants, 5-1, as the Cardinals were whipped again by the Chicago Cubs, 9-1. Bill Voiselle, ex-Giant, held his former mates to seven hits.

Pounding four Brooklyn pitchers for 12 hits and getting 12 walks the Philadelphia Phillies walloped the Dodgers 13-4 at Ebbets Field. The victory cost the Phils the services of Pitcher Duren Leonard who was struck on the head by a pitched ball by Harry Taylor and was carried from the field. X-rays disclosed no fracture.

The scheduled game between the Senators and Athletics was postponed by rain. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Farm Tools Kayoes Tappan Stove, 5-2

Farm Tools took a firm grip on first place in the Class A Industrial softball league last night by coming from behind to knock Tappan Stove from the unbeaten ranks, 5 to 2, at Johns park.

In winning their seventh straight league victory, the defending champs spotted Tappan a pair of runs in the first inning. Then Jack Walters settled down and blanked the Stovers the rest of the way. Tappan has now won five and lost one.

Home runs featured the contest. George Curry hit one with Leo Kanz on base in the first inning to account for the Tappan tallies. Jim LeMunyon and Walters hit four-masters for the winners. Walters gave up only three hits and struck out five.

The Toolmen got one run in the fourth and sewed it up with a trio in the fifth.

TELEPHONERS WIN

Three other league games were played last night with Telephone company taking a bit of the spotlight. The Telephoners counted nine runs in the fourth to defeat Dominion Electric, 10 to 5, for their first win of the season.

Cole's Tool and Dye surprised Ideal Electric, 6 to 1, and Mansfield Plumbing defeated Mansfield Tire, 6 to 2. D. Walker, Cole's pitcher, also had a three-hit job.

U. S. Golfers Back In Field

MUIRFIELD, Scotland —(AP)— America's shotmakers, off to a scrambling start, must show plenty of improvement today if they're to have a chance for the British open golf championship.

All nine of the United States' hopes ran into stretches of erratic play—mostly on the putting greens—yesterday in the first 18-hole tour of the 72-hole medal test.

Lawson Little turned in the top American performance—a 72, three strokes back of the lead—while Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., the British amateur winner, registered a horrendous 77.

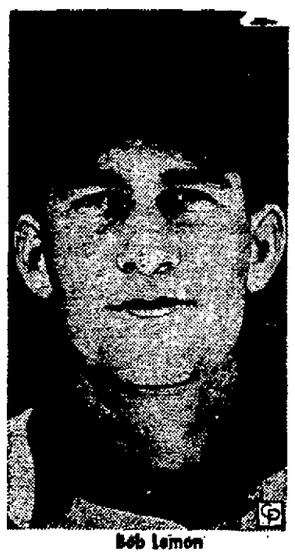
Bob Lemon Hurls First Night No-Hitter In Majors

Tribe Wins, 2 to 0; Three Reach First

DETROIT—(AP)—Righthander Bob Lemon, one of the main reasons the Cleveland Indians are leading the American league, turned in big time baseball's first no-hit, no-run game of 1948 as he blanked the Tigers 2 to 0 last night.

Only three Detroiters reached base—all via walks—as the 27-year-old twirler threw a baffling assortment of stuff at the Bengals.



Bob Lemon

Four of them fanned and in the crucial ninth when the Tigers were striving desperately to break Lemon's spell, he really poured it on. The best the Tigers could manage in that inning was two balls dribbled back to the mound for easy putouts. The third batter fanned.

For Lemon, who failed to make the grade with the Indians as a third baseman or an outfielder, the win was the 11th of the season and his fifth shutout. He has lost six games.

CROWD WATCHES

A crowd of 49,628 fans saw Lemon turn in his nifty performance and as the game approached its final innings, they were pulling for the Cleveland twirler to complete his no-hitter.

Hundreds of fans swarmed onto the field to shake Lemon's hand, but players and police formed a flying wedge and rushed the pitcher to the safety of the Cleveland dressing room.

There newsmen began their scores of questions.

"I had as good stuff as I ever had and I got wonderful support out there," the Cleveland no-hitter replied. He said he knew right along that he had a no-hitter in his grasp and joked about the way the Indians didn't talk to him from the sixth inning on for fear they would put a jinx on his no-hit aspirations.

The Tigers were a dejected lot as they milled about in their dressing room after nine futile innings of swinging at Lemon's stuff.

AIDED BY ERRORS

The Indians, aided by two costly Tigers errors, got to Houtteman for both their runs in the initial inning. Lou Boudreau's long double was the big wallop of the inning, as he drove in run No. 1 and came home a couple of minutes later after an error and a long fly ball pushed him along.

Lemon's no-hit, no-run performance was the first ever achieved in an American league night game. It was the first such pitching accomplishment since Bill McCahan of the Philadelphia Athletics blanked the Washington Senators without a hit Sept. 3, 1947.

Mayer Blasts Par With 32 At Possum Run

Joe Mayer really took the Possum Run links apart yesterday to feature play in three Westinghouse golf leagues.

The Mansfield professional cut loose with a fine 32, which is just four strokes under regulation figures. It represented the lowest nine-hole tally of the season at Possum.

Following Mayer at Possum was Carl Kushin with a 35 and Ray Malaska and Paul Jesson with 36's. Frank Cipris and N. Sholaya were the lowscorers at Coolridge with scores of 37.

G-R Outfit, Regulas Top Akron, 6-0

Mansfield Gorman-Rupp increased its stature as one of Ohio's better softball teams last night by romping to a 6-0 victory over the tough Akron Firestones.

That sterling brother act of Bobby and Jim Regula once again gave a sparkling performance as they limited the visitors to a solitary hit and struck out 16. Bobby went the first five innings and did not give up a hit while Jim was touched for the lone blow in his four-inning stint.

The brothers have allowed only four hits in the last five games.

BAKI GETS THREE

Paced by Shortstop Al Baki, Gorman-Rupp clinched the result with a single tally in the first inning and added two in the fifth and three in the seventh. Baki had two doubles and a single and scored three runs.

Gorman-Rupp entertains the Ashland Indians in a North Central Ohio Inter-City league game tomorrow at 8:30 p. m. on the G-R field. The Mansfield team is undefeated in league play.

Boston Trims Yanks, 7-3; Braves Increase Margin

(By Associated Press)

Bob Lemon's no run-no hit masterpiece last night made a successful prophet of Cleveland owner Bill Veeck.

The 27-year-old Indian righthander, who tried his hand at pitching after failing to make the big league grade as an infielder or outfielder, rewarded his boss' faith by shutting out the Detroit Tigers, 2-0, without allowing a single safety.

The victory, Lemon's 11th of the season and his fifth shutout, did more than increase the Tribe's first place American league margin over the Philadelphia Athletics to a game and a half. It further solidified his position as the mainstay of the Indians' staff, which includes the great Bob Feller.

Jack Kramer posted his seventh win in pitching the Boston Red Sox to a 7-3 triumph over the New York Yankees. Junior Stephens drove in five runs with two hits, including his 14th homer. Ted Williams got a single in five times at bat to extend his consecutive hitting streak through 16 games.

At St. Louis, the Browns nipped the Chicago White Sox 2-1. A home run by Paul Lehrner spelled the difference.

The Boston Braves moved a game and a half ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league race by downing the New York Giants, 3-1, as the Cardinals were whipped again by the Chicago Cubs, 9-1. Bill Voiselle, ex-Giant, held his former mates to seven hits.

Pounding four Brooklyn pitchers for 12 hits and getting 12 walks, the Philadelphia Phillies walloped the Dodgers 13-4, at Ebbets Field. The victory cost the Phils the services of Pitcher Dutch Leonard who was struck on the head by a pitched ball by Harry Taylor and was carried from the field. X-rays disclosed no fracture.

The scheduled game between the Senators and Athletics was postponed by rain. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Farm Tools Kayoes Tappan Stove, 5-2

Farm Tools took a firm grip on first place in the Class A Industrial softball league last night by coming from behind to knock Tappan Stove from the unbeaten ranks, 5 to 2, at Johns park.

In winning their seventh straight league victory, the defending champs spotted Tappan a pair of runs in the first inning. Then Jack Walters settled down and blanked the Stovers the rest of the way. Tappan has now won five and lost one.

Home runs featured the contest. George Curry hit one with Leo Kanz on base in the first inning to account for the Tappan tallies. Jim LeMunyon and Walters hit four-masters for the winners. Walters gave up only three hits and struck out five.

The Toolmen got one run in the fourth and sewed it up with a trio in the fifth.

TELEPHONERS WIN

Three other league games were played last night with Telephone company taking a bit of the spotlight. The Telephoners counted nine runs in the fourth to defeat Dominion Electric, 10 to 5, for their first win of the season.

Cole's Tool and Dye surprised Ideal Electric, 6 to 1, and Mansfield Plumbing defeated Mansfield Tire, 6 to 2. D. Walker, Cole's pitcher, also had a three-hit job.

Handy Farmers Plan Social; Tool Demonstration Given

The Handy Farmers 4-H club made plans to hold an ice cream social with the girls' club some time in July at a meeting held in the Adario town hall.

The group voted to charge members 10 cents if they forget their project books. Refreshments were served.

★

Eleanor Brook told members of the Handy Helpers 4-H club of her experiences as an Ohio 4-H delegate to Chicago last winter. The group met at the home of the adviser, Mrs. J. J. Swisher.

Jean Stimens and Martha Jane Ewing gave a team demonstration on how to clean and care for garden tools. The art of making a summer salad was demonstrated by Doris Ann Stash.

The next meeting will be held July 12.

Twelve members and one guest attended a meeting of the Forest Hall 4-H club at the home of Meredith and John Smith. The annual club conference was discussed, and a demonstration was given by Stanley Lomax.

The next meeting will be at the home of Wesley Koogle.

Army Breaks Up Soldier Romance

YOKOHAMA—(U.P.)—Corp. Delbert Reed, whose mother in Columbus, O., asked the Army to prevent him from marrying a Japanese girl in Kyoto, has been transferred to the United States for reassignment, it was announced today.

The action was taken "in view of the morale question involved" and with the concurrence of Washington. Reed sailed June 22 on the U. S. Army transport General Brewster.
